

Sustainability Literacy of Students (Jan – Dec 2024)

Introduction

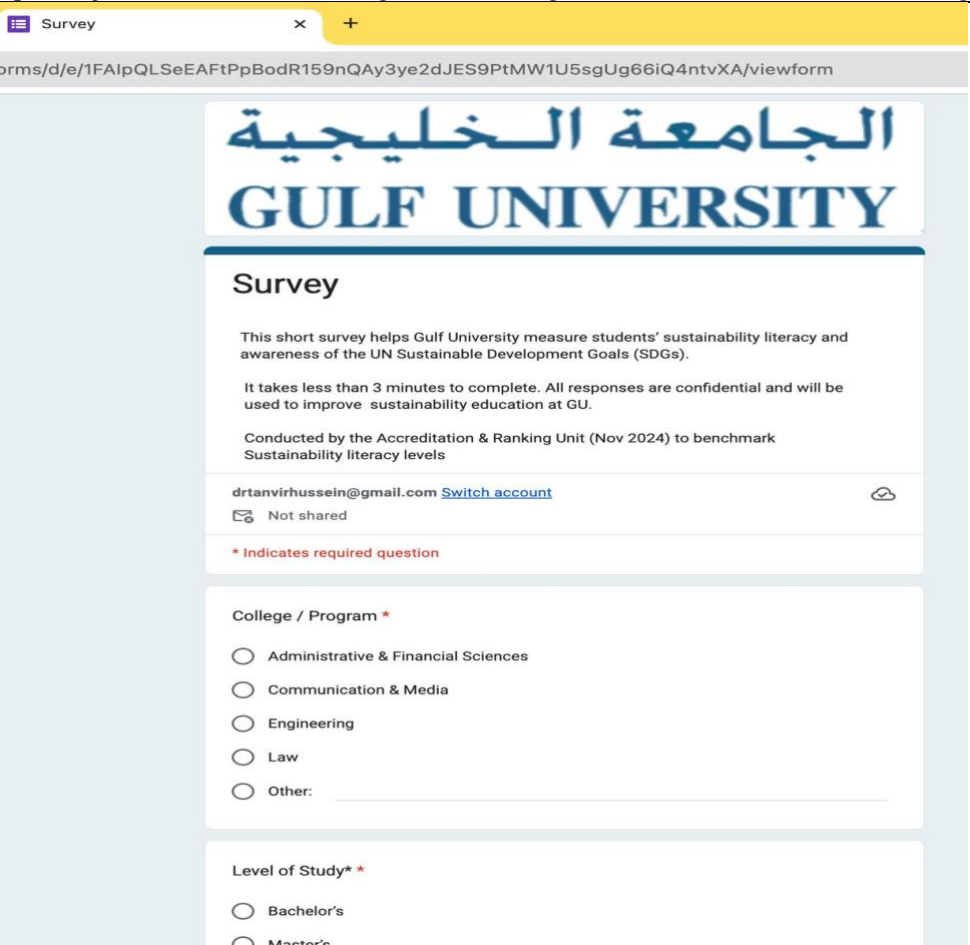

GU measures students' understanding and retention of sustainability principles, and SDGs.

Policy Alignment: The Sustainability and Development Makers Center (SDM-C) Operational Plan 2024–2029 includes a commitment to promoting Sustainability Literacy and Awareness across all programs.

Integration: Sustainability and SDG content are integrated into 97 of 291 courses (33%) in 2024, across GU's programs (Accounting & Finance, HRM, Mass Communication, Interior Design Engineering, Law, and Engineering).

Method	Description	Frequency	Evidence
Pre- and Post-Training Quizzes	Short online surveys embedded in CECEC's community workshops and SDM-C's Sustainability Week sessions to assess conceptual understanding of SDGs.	Each semester (open to students & alumni)	SDM-C Report 2024–25 (Workshop KPI section)
Course-Embedded Evaluation	Each GU program includes CLOs related to "Ethical and Sustainable Decision-Making." Faculty evaluate via written reflections, case studies, or project rubrics.	All undergraduate programs	Course specifications (2024–25 update)
Sustainability Week Quiz ("SDG Big Quiz")	Interactive literacy assessment held during GU Sustainability Week; tests knowledge of global and local sustainability challenges.	Annually	SDM-C Sustainability Week Report Dec 2024
Graduation Projects	Students must demonstrate awareness of SDGs through project outcomes or reflective sections; evaluated by faculty panel using sustainability criteria.	Final year	Project evaluation forms
Student Survey on Sustainability Awareness	Conducted by the Accreditation & Ranking Unit (Nov 2024) to benchmark literacy levels and inform GU's 2025 strategy.	Every academic year	Survey results dashboard
